Dear Mr. Weisberg,

I have enclosed the article from The Investigator that I mentioned in my last note to you. Sorry I wasn't clearer as to it's nature. The Investigator is a "journal" started last January by "researcher" G.J. Rowell, presumably to handle overflow articles from Third (now Fourth) Decade, with Jerry Rose's blessing.

I am still contemplating a review of HT2, to include my correspondence with Harry to alert the uninformed of his carelessness and other attributes. It looks like we're in for at least 2 more books from him.

"COMMITMENT TO EXCELLENCE"

As always! My best wishes.

Sincerely, Dave Keck
